

The image features a central white space with the word "Gutschein" written in a bold, black, sans-serif font. This central area is framed by a decorative border of various burgers and sandwiches. The border consists of several vertical stacks of burgers on the left and right sides, and a horizontal row of burgers along the top and bottom edges. The burgers are illustrated in a cartoonish style with brown buns, green lettuce, red tomato slices, yellow cheese, and brown patties. Some burgers have red sauce dripping over them. The overall composition is symmetrical and visually appealing, suggesting a theme of food or dining.
